

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

IN THE
HO-CHUNK NATION TRIAL COURT

HO-CHUNK NATION, ORDER (Amending Name of Plaintiff)

Plaintiff,

v.

JANICE HARRISON, Case No.: CR 99-01

Defendant.

John Swimmer for Ho-Chunk Nation moved that the Court change the name of the plaintiff or charging party, to the Ho-Chunk Nation from David Snowball, Housing Occupancy specialist. This appears appropriate and the Court accepts the Motion as it better reflects the nature of the proceeding as a criminal matter. The Court also notes that the plaintiff appears to have dropped the second defendant in this case Cheryl Lynn Decorah-Snake and only mentions Janice Harrison. The Court respectfully requests that the plaintiff clarify its intent at the hearing to be held on October 21, 1999.

A Hearing in this case is to be held on October 21, 1999 at the Ho-Chunk Nation Court House at Black River Falls, WI. At that time the defendant will be read the charges against her and be advised of her rights to a jury trial and to representation at her own expense. After that she will be asked to render her plea of guilty or not guilty.

IT IS SO ORDERED this June 14, 2007 from within the sovereign lands of the Ho-Chunk Nation.

Hon. Mark Butterfield
HCN Chief Trial Judge