1. Authority.

a. Article II of the Constitution of the Ho-Chunk Nation ("Constitution") defines the Requirements for Membership in the Ho-Chunk Nation ("Nation") as follows:

Section 1. Requirements. The following persons shall be eligible for membership in the Ho-Chunk Nation, provided, that such persons are not enrolled members of any other Indian nation:

(a) All persons of Ho-Chunk blood whose names appear or are entitled to appear on the official census roll prepared pursuant to the Act of January 18, 1881 (21 Stat. 315), or the Wisconsin Winnebago Annuity Payroll for the year one thousand nine hundred and one (1901), or the Act of January 20, 1910 (36 Stat. 873), or the Act of July 1, 1912 (37 Stat. 187); or

(b) All descendants of persons listed in Section 1(a), provided, that such persons are at least one-fourth (1/4) Ho-Chunk blood.

(c) Beginning the date this amendment is approved, the Ho-Chunk Nation shall no longer consider or accept for enrollment any person who has previously been enrolled as a member of another Tribe (including the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska). [New section adopted by Amendment I on January 26, 2000 and approved by the Secretary on March 3, 2000.]

Section 2. Relinquishment of Membership and Re-enrollment.

Enrollment in any other Indian Nation shall constitute voluntary relinquishment of membership. Adult members may relinquish their membership or the membership of their minor children. Relinquishment of membership shall be done in writing. Any adult member who has voluntarily requested to be removed from the Membership Roll shall not be eligible for re-enrollment. Any minor whose membership has been relinquished by a parent shall be eligible for re-enrollment upon reaching the age of eighteen (18).

Section 3. Re-enrollment by General Council. Any person at least one-fourth (1/4) Ho-Chunk blood who has relinquished membership under Section 2 of this Article may be re-enrolled into membership by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the General Council, provided, that such individual is not an enrolled member of any other Indian Nation.

Section 4. Membership Roll. The Legislature shall maintain one official roll of all tribal members.

Section 5. Membership Code. The Legislature shall have the power to enact laws not inconsistent with this Article to govern membership. Removal of any person who is not eligible for membership from the Membership Roll shall be done in accordance with the Membership Code. Removal of any person from the Membership Roll shall be determined by the Judiciary. The rule of law shall be applied based on the evidence and DNA evidence. All decisions of the Judiciary shall be final.

Section 6. Appeals. Any person who has been rejected for enrollment or who has been removed from the Membership Roll shall have the right to appeal to the Judiciary for a remedy in equity consistent with this Constitution.

b. Article V, Section 2(a) of the Constitution grants the Legislature the power to make laws, including codes, ordinances, resolutions, and statutes.

c. Article V, Section 2(b) of the Constitution grants the Legislature the power to establish Executive Departments and to delegate legislative powers to the Executive Branch to be administered by such Departments.

d. Article V, Section 3 of the Constitution requires the Legislature to adopt a code governing Membership.

e. Article X, Section 1(a)(8) of the Constitution prohibits the Nation to deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of its laws or deprive any person of liberty or property without due process of law.

2. Purpose. To establish within the Department of Heritage Preservation, an Office of Tribal Enrollment, to maintain one official roll of all Members and to provide procedures for determining which persons meet the requirements for Membership in the Ho-Chunk Nation.

3. Definitions. For purposes of this Code, these words have the following definitions and will be identified throughout this document by capitalization:

a. "Absent Member" means a Member of the Ho-Chunk Nation who, for a period of at least one (1) year, has not cashed a per capita distribution check, whose per capita distribution check is returned undeliverable, or the Member has not completed an annual address verification form and whose absence is unexplained.

b. "Affected Member" means a Member who is subject to removal from the Membership Roll as an ineligible Member.

c. "Affiant" means a Member of the Ho-Chunk Nation who is at least eighteen (18) years old and who signs an Affidavit in accordance with this Code.

d. "Affidavit" means a written or printed declaration or statement of facts, made, voluntarily, and confirmed by the oath or affirmation of the party making it, taken before a person having authority to administer such oath or affirmation, such as a Notary Public.

e. "Applicant" means an individual whose name will be added, if determined to be eligible, to the Ho-Chunk Nation Membership Roll.

f. "Application" means the Application for Membership.

g. "Attorney General" means the Attorney General for the Ho-Chunk Nation.

h. "Base Rolls" means the official census rolls prepared pursuant to the Act of January 18, 1881 (21 Stat. 315), or the Wisconsin Winnebago Annuity Payroll for the year one thousand nine hundred and one (1901), or the Act of January 20, 1910 (36 Stat. 873), or the Act of July 1, 1912 (37 Stat. 187).

i. "Clear and Convincing Evidence" means evidence that tends to show, on its face, more likely than not, that fact which is trying to be proven.

j. "Confidential Information" means any information about a Tribal Member that is received and maintained by the Office of Tribal Enrollment for the purpose of enrollment. Confidential information includes, but is not limited to (1) any information that can be used to distinguish or trace an individual's identity, such as name, social security number, date, and place of birth, mother's maiden name, and (2) any other information that can be linked to an individual, such as educational, financial, and employment information.

k. "By-Laws" means the rules and regulations that control the internal procedures of the Ho-Chunk Nation Committee on Tribal Enrollment. The By-Laws shall be approved by the Ho-Chunk Nation Legislature. By-Laws shall not be inconsistent with the Constitution, the Tribal Enrollment and Membership Code, or other laws of the Nation. If there is any inconsistency between the By-Laws and the Constitution; the Tribal Enrollment and Membership Code; or other laws of the Nation, the Constitution; the Tribal Enrollment and Membership Code; or other laws of the Nation shall supersede the By-Laws.

l. "Committee" means the Ho-Chunk Nation Committee on Tribal Enrollment.

m. "Constitution" means the Constitution of the Ho-Chunk.

n. "Court" means the Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court.

o. "Day" means a Day of twenty-four (24) hours.

p. "Discretionary Benefits" means any benefits, except for per capita payments and other benefits which are deemed mandatory as provided by the Charitable Request Act (4 HCC §8), provided by the Nation to Members of the Ho-Chunk Nation as a result of them being a Member of the Nation.

q. "Disenrollment" means an official action done pursuant to provisions of this Code and the Ho-Chunk Nation Constitution which removes a Ho-Chunk Member from the Ho-Chunk rolls.

r. "District" means one of the five (5) Districts of the Ho-Chunk Nation established pursuant to Article V, Section 1(b) of the Constitution.

s. "DNA" is the acronym for deoxyribonucleic acid, which is that nucleic acid that carries the genetic information in the cell and is capable of self-replication and synthesis of ribonucleic acid "RNA."

t. "Enrollment Rules and Regulation" means the internal governing procedures for the Office of Tribal Enrollment. Enrollment Rules and Regulations shall not be inconsistent with the Constitution, the Tribal Enrollment and Membership Code, or any other laws of the Nation. If there is any inconsistency between the Enrollment Rules and Regulations and the Constitution; the Tribal Enrollment and Membership Code; or other laws of the Nation, the Constitution; the Tribal Enrollment and Membership Code; or other laws of the Nation shall supersede the Enrollment Rules and Regulations.

u. "Frivolous" means a groundless claim to remove an enrolled Tribal Member.

v. "Ho-Chunk Blood" means the quantum of Ho-Chunk Blood in a person's lineage as it appears in Article II, Section 1 of the Constitution and includes Members of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska. If the Base Rolls provide no percentage of Ho-Chunk Blood, the Tribal Enrollment Officer will determine that the percentage of Ho-Chunk Blood is four-fourths (4/4), unless the Tribal Enrollment Officer determines by Clear and Convincing Evidence that the actual percentage is less than four-fourths (4/4).

(d) Applicable adoption orders and information.

d. Upon finding that a submitted Application Packet is incomplete, a deficiency notice will be mailed to the Applicant or Sponsor via U.S. mail.

e. Verification of Applicant Identity and Eligibility. The Office of Tribal Enrollment shall develop process and procedures for the verification of Applicant Identity and Eligibility in accordance with the Ho-Chunk Nation Constitution and this code.

f. DNA Testing. All DNA test results remain the property of the Ho-Chunk Nation and will be stored in accordance with Office of Tribal Enrollment Procedures. In the case of adoptions, a DNA test is not required.

g. Any person or Tribal Member who falsifies or knowingly submits false information on an Application may be subject to a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) imposed by an Order of the Committee on Tribal Enrollment or the Trial Court. Any Tribal Member abetting the preparation of false documents or conspiring to submit false information will be subject to the same One Thousand Dollar ($1,000) fine. In addition to the monetary fine, the Applicant's Application for Enrollment will be declared inactive for one (1) year.

h. Grounds for Denial of Application for Membership. Grounds for denial of an Application will include, but not be limited to:

(1) failure to prove descendency from persons described in Article II, Section 1(a) of the Constitution, which is determined by DNA Test results; or

(2) the Applicant is less than one-fourth (1/4) Ho-Chunk Blood; or

(3) the Applicant is a Member of another federally recognized Indian Tribe; or

(4) the Applicant Relinquished Membership from another federally recognized Indian Tribe.

7. Determination on Eligibility.

a. The Tribal Enrollment Officer will review the Application file upon completion of processing in accordance with paragraph 6. c., above, and make an initial determination on eligibility. The Tribal Enrollment Officer will certify a Notice of Eligibility for Membership and will publish such Notice in the Nation's newsletter and on the Nation's website. Upon publication a sixty (60) Day notice period begins.

b. The Notice of Eligibility for Membership must include the Applicant's name, date of birth, Base Roll ancestry, Ho-Chunk Blood and parent.

c. There will be an exemption for adoptions. Pursuant to Wisconsin and other States' Laws certain information will be neither published nor released.

d. Approval of Membership. All rights, privileges and benefits of Membership will take effect after the sixty (60) Day notice period if no appeal is filed with the Office of Tribal Enrollment.

e. Applicants who do not meet the requirements of enrollment, but have proven ancestry and parentage, shall be determined to qualify as being a Descendant and will be granted a Certificate of Descendency.

8. Appeals to Committee on Tribal Enrollment and Trial Court.

a. Except for as provided in paragraph 10. b. (2) (b) (v) (cc) 1, any Member, Applicant, or Sponsor may appeal a determination made by the Office of Tribal Enrollment to the Committee on Tribal Enrollment. Matters which may be appealed include determinations regarding Eligibility for Membership, a fine imposed by the Committee, or a Blood Quantum change that adversely affects the Member. Such appeal must be filed within sixty (60) Days after the date on which the Office of Tribal Enrollment publishes Notice of Eligibility for Membership or notifies the Member, Applicant, or Sponsor of the decision by certified mail. The Committee will hold a hearing and issue a decision on such appeal in accordance with this Code.

b. The Committee on Tribal Enrollment's decision will be appealable to the Trial Court pursuant to Article II, Section 6 of the Constitution.

9. Voluntary Relinquishment.

a. Voluntary Relinquishment of Membership.

(1) A Member may voluntarily Relinquish Membership in accordance with Article II, Section 2 of the Constitution of the Ho-Chunk Nation.

(2) The Tribal Enrollment Officer will establish procedures for Voluntary Relinquishment in accordance with Article II, Section 2 of the Constitution.

(3) A Member who seeks Voluntary Relinquishment of Membership will notify the Office of Tribal Enrollment in writing with a notarized signature.

(a) The Office of Tribal Enrollment shall develop a Relinquishment Form to be handed to any Member who wishes to Voluntarily Relinquish Membership.

This Relinquishment Form shall outline the consequences of Relinquishing Membership and the process to voluntarily Relinquish Membership.

(b) Upon receiving a written notification that a Member wishes to Relinquish Membership, the Office of Tribal Enrollment shall send via certified mail a copy of the Relinquishment Form to the Member who submitted the written notification to initiate the process of Relinquishing Membership.

(4) The Office of Tribal Enrollment will forward the Voluntary Relinquishment to the Trial Court for certification.

(5) Voluntary Relinquishment will become effective upon receipt of the Trial Court's certification by the Office of Tribal Enrollment, unless otherwise provided under the Code and will immediately terminate all rights, privileges, and benefits of Membership and the person's name will be removed from the Membership Roll.

b. Relinquishment of a Minor's Membership. Any parent or legal guardian wishing to relinquish a Minor's Membership must petition the Trial Court. The Court will appoint a guardian ad litem for the minor for the purpose of representing the interests of that minor before the Court. Any minor whose Membership has been Relinquished by a parent shall be eligible for re-enrollment upon reaching the age of eighteen (18).

c. Pursuant to Article II, Section 2, of the Ho-Chunk Constitution, enrollment in any other Indian Nation will constitute Voluntary Relinquishment of Membership with the Ho-Chunk Nation.

d. Pursuant to Article II, Section 3, of the Ho-Chunk Constitution, a former Member who Voluntarily Relinquished Membership, as a result of becoming enrolled in another Indian Tribe may only be re-enrolled if that individual satisfies the following conditions:

(1) The individual is no longer enrolled in any other Tribe;

(2) The individual is of at least one-fourth (1/4) Ho-Chunk Blood; and

(3) The individual obtains a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the General Council to be reenrolled as a Member.

10. Ineligible Tribal Member Removal.

a. Grounds for Removal.

(1) All removal proceedings shall be conducted by the Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court and Supreme Court.

(2) Any adult, enrolled Ho-Chunk Member(s) may petition for the removal of another Member by filing in the Trial Court.

(3) Upon filing, the Trial Court shall hold a preliminary hearing within thirty (30) calendar days. This preliminary hearing is for the Court to determine if a prima facie case to support the removal of the Affected Member has been presented, in order to proceed with removal hearings. If the court finds that there is not a prima facie case with sufficient evidence to proceed with removal hearings, the case shall be dismissed. If the court finds that a prima facie case for removal does exist, the court shall proceed with a removal hearings.

(4) A Member may only be removed from the Membership rolls if there is clear and convincing evidence that the Member does not meet the eligibility requirements established in Article II, Section 1 of the Constitution.

(5) The Trial Court's final decision is subject to appeal under the Judicial Rules of Appellate Procedure.

b. Penalties for Unlawful Retaliation.

(1) If an Affected Member unlawfully retaliates or causes someone else to unlawfully retaliate against the Trial Court or the Member(s) who filed in the Court for removal, the affected member may be fined One Thousand Dollars ($1,000).

c. Frivolous and/or Malicious Removal by Members. If the Trial Court finds that the removal initiated by Member(s) was Frivolous and/or Malicious, the Trial Court will award the Affected Member a remedy of not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), to be equally assessed against the Member(s) who filed, for defamation and hardship created for the Affected Member. In addition to the Five Thousand Dollar ($5,000) remedy, the Trial Court may order the Member(s) who filed to also pay any other fees associated with the removal hearing, incurred either by the Affected Member or the Nation, to include the cost of DNA analysis. The Court will include the Nation as an interested party to this lawsuit.

11. Procedures for the Missing Enrolled Ho-Chunk Members.

a. Pursuant to paragraph 11. b., the Office of Tribal Enrollment will engage and pay for the services of an independent firm to conduct a missing person investigation if the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) The request for the missing person investigation comes from an immediate family member; and

(2) Prior to making the requests:

(aa) The immediate family member has contacted local law enforcement where the Absent Member was last located or believed to be located and filed a Missing Person Report; and

1 The local law enforcement has followed its procedures to locate the Absent Member and has been unable to find him or her.

2 The immediate family member has received a letter from the local law enforcement official conducting the missing person investigation that states that the local law enforcement has been unable to find the Absent Member.

(bb) The immediate family member has contacted the Wisconsin Clearinghouse for Missing & Exploited Children & Adults or similar agency of the state where the Absent Member was last located or believed to be located and notified the agency that the Absent Member is missing.

b. If the requirements of paragraph 11. a. are satisfied, the immediate family of an Absent Member, may request that the Office of Tribal Enrollment take the following actions:

(1) Conduct a sufficiently thorough missing person's investigation. The Office of Tribal Enrollment will engage and pay for the services of an independent firm to conduct this missing person search.

(2) Upon learning the results of the missing person investigation, the Office of Tribal Enrollment will notify by certified mail the immediate family member who asked the Office of Tribal Enrollment to conduct the missing person search.

(3) For purposes of the paragraph 11. the words "immediate family" is defined as parent, grandparent, sibling, child, step relative, spouse, or cohabitant.

c. When the Nation's Legislature enacts a Probate Code, matters related to how to deal with Absent Members who are not found as a result of the missing person investigation will be addressed and controlled by the Probate Code.

12. Recovery of Membership Benefits. After the Disenrollment of a Member and upon a determination by the Trial Court that the Member was enrolled as a result of fraud, the Nation may recover any or all property and repayment of money gained from the Nation by the Member.

13. Effect on Existing Law. This Code repeals and replaces any existing law or regulations governing Ho-Chunk Nation Enrollment and Membership and Ineligible Tribal Member Removal Procedures. All Applications, Voluntary Relinquishments, Ineligible Tribal Member Removals, and Requests to Conduct a missing person investigation submitted to the Office of Tribal Enrollment or Committee on Tribal Enrollment prior to January 1, 2008 will be controlled by the law as it existed prior to the passage of Resolution 10-16-07 - L.

14. Amendments. Pursuant to the Legislative Organization Act (2 HCC §11), this Ordinance may be amended by the action of the Legislature, in a meeting at which quorum is present, but only upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present.

15. Severability. Except for paragraph 19, if any provision of this Code is determined by the Judiciary to be contrary to the Constitution, the invalid provision will be severed from this Code and the remaining provisions will be given full force and effect.

16. Sovereign Immunity. Nothing in this Code will be deemed to waive the sovereign immunity of the Ho-Chunk Nation or any of its enterprises, officers, agents, or employees.
