

POSTING

In accordance with the recently passed Language and Culture Code, the Ho-Chunk Nation is seeking interested individuals to serve on the Language and Culture Committee. Duties, Obligations and Responsibilities of the Ho-Chunk Language and Culture Committee shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

- a. To serve as the primary planning, screening and review Committee for all issues relating to the Ho-Chunk language, Ho-Chunk history and Ho-Chunk cultural instruction or activities...
- b. To assist the Ho-Chunk Tribal government in the formulation of policies and procedures pertaining to the Ho-Chunk language, Ho-Chunk history and Ho-Chunk cultural activities...
- c. The Ho-Chunk Language and Culture Committee shall work cooperatively with other tribal committees and tribal individuals to insure that all cultural matters, shall be protected in negotiations and all agreements with any external entity...
- d. To assist in program planning coordination and program development efforts (both federally and privately funded) concerning the Ho-Chunk language and culture activities.
- e. To review and determine the criteria for Ho-Chunk language competencies and fluency...
- f. To review and approve all Ho-Chunk culturally related curriculum...
- g. To review and approve all Ho-Chunk language, Ho-Chunk history and Ho-Chunk culture-related research studies and proposals submitted by outside entities, colleges, universities, private groups and individuals...
- h. To screen and determine Ho-Chunk language competence for Ho-Chunk speaking individuals desiring to obtain college credit from colleges and universities for speaking a second language...
- i. To review and reserve approval on all other assignments and tasks related to the Ho-Chunk language, Ho-Chunk history and Ho-Chunk cultural activities as may be referred to the Committee.

The Committee shall be comprised of 4 Ho-Chunk Elders and 3 Ho-Chunk Elite Elders. Committee members must be proficient in the Ho-Chunk Language. Appointments shall be made by the Ho-Chunk Nation Legislature in consultation with the Traditional Court. Applicants will be asked to appear before the Traditional Court prior to appointment.

Interested applicants may submit a letter of interest including name, DOB, and current contact information to:

Ho-Chunk Nation Legislature
Administration Committee Presiding Officer OR mary.miner@ho-chunk.com
PO Box 667
Black River Falls, WI 54615