6. Definitions. The following terms shall have the meaning indicated:

a. "Allottee" means the individual owner(s) of an allotment or an allotment interest.

b. "Allotment property" means real property held in trust by the United States of America for individual Ho-Chunk members. Original homesteads/allotments were granted by the Federal Government to Ho-Chunk Nation members through the Dawes Act (also known as the General Allotment Act) in 1887. These trust properties currently are held by the United States of America through the Bureau of Indian Affairs for the heirs of a homestead/allotment.

Deleted: The Indian Land Consolidation Act (ILCA), enacted by the Federal government in 1983 (later amendments followed), provided for a method to prevent the further fractionation of these trust properties. Through ILCA, the Ho-Chunk Nation has acquired ownership in many homestead/allotments that were sold to the Nation through the Indian Land Consolidation Program by individual heirs of said homestead/allotments.

c. "Designated interest" means an allotment interest which has been designated to a defined individual through a valid will or other conveyance.

d. "Heir" means the person entitled to property or title as the legal successor.

e. "Fractionated interests" means a trust parcel owned by more than one owner as undivided interests. This is a result of land ownership interest being divided again and again as owners of the interests die and the interests are divided according to laws of probate or intestate succession.

f. "Heirship or Homestead property" means property granted to a head of household or individual by the Federal government. Historically, some of the Ho-Chunk Nation allotments were converted into homesteads and vice versa.

g. "Trust property" means those properties that are held in trust by the United States of America for the benefit of an Indian tribe or individual Indian members.

h. "Fee or Fee simple property" means real property wholly owned and controlled by the Nation or owned by an individual and subject to state tax.

i. "Purchase Restricted Trust property" means property held by the Bureau of Indian Affairs in trust for owners who are tribal members/heirs in which the Ho-Chunk Nation's ownership interest would be less than fifty (50) percent.

l. "Undivided interest" means the allotment interests, which have been fractionated over the years and have not been subdivided through apportionment. Undivided interest can be characterized as co-owners sharing an entire tract collectively and who do not receive individual parcels within the tract for themselves.

m. "Transferee" means the individual allotment owner who is making the transfer to the Nation.

Deleted: <#>"Indian Land Consolidation Act (ILCA)" means the Act enacted in 1983 and its amendments thereto, specifically 1984 and 2000, which were enacted to reduce fractionation and to appropriate Federal funds for "buyback" of small interest on behalf of the Nation. See Indian Land Consolidation Act Section 1721: See also Public Law 102-238.¶
<#>"Indian Land Consolidation Program (ILCP)" means the Federally funded program established by the Indian Land Consolidation Act (ILCA) for the purpose of acquiring and consolidating undivided fractionated interests in allotted trust lands in the name of the Nation for the benefit of its members.¶
