(b) If the family declines the offered services, the CFS Worker may initiate a petition in Court alleging a child in need of protective services if CFS believes it to be in the child's best interest or refer the case to the appropriate county agency.

(5) Within thirty (30) days after a referral of a child in need of protective services, submit a final written report of the investigation and assessment, which shall be recorded in a central registry maintained by CFS.

(6) CFS shall have the duty to refer eligible youth who are in out-of-home care for at least six (6) months and who are between the ages of fifteen (15) and seventeen (17) to the Independent Living Services Program.

(7) If a child is in the custody of CFS and is believed to be incompetent, then CFS shall refer the child to the appropriate jurisdiction before the child reaches the age of majority, for the purposes of an adult guardianship.

d. Powers of CFS:

(1) After the investigation, prepare an assessment of the home environment of the child or children in the same home and the risk to such children if they remain in the home environment, and all other relevant factors. CFS shall determine whether any of such children are in need of protective services.

(2) CFS may enter into either an informal (out of court) agreement or consent decree (court ordered) at any time with the child of age twelve (12) or older, the parent(s) or guardian(s) and other parties pursuant to the procedures set forth in this Act.

(3) Take a child into temporary custody from his/her surroundings based on reasonable grounds to believe that the child is in imminent danger due to injury, neglect, or abuse and that removal is necessary.

(2) Life Endangerment. A physician informs the Court orally or in writing that in his/her professional opinion, the life of the child would be greatly endangered without certain treatment and the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) refuses or fails to consent. If time allows in a situation of this type, the Court shall cause every effort to be made to grant the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) an immediate informal hearing, but this hearing shall not be allowed to further jeopardize the child's life.

b. In making its Order the Court shall give due consideration to the consent of the child.

c. If the child or his/her parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) are adherents of a bona fide religious denomination that relies exclusively on prayer, through spiritual means alone, or through other methods approved by the tribal customs, traditions, or religion, then the Court shall give due consideration to such treatment in making its Order.

d. After entering any authorization under this Section, the Court shall produce a written Order and enter it in the records of the Court and shall cause a copy of the authorization to be given to the physician or hospital, or both, that was involved.

e. Oral authorization by the Court is sufficient for care or treatment to be given and shall be accepted by any physician or hospital. No physician or hospital, nor any technician or other person under the direction of such a physician or hospital shall be subject to civil or criminal liability in the Court for performance of care or treatment in reliance on the Court's authorization, and any function performed thereunder shall be regarded as if it were performed with the child's and the parent's authorization.

b. Grounds. No child shall be removed from the home of a child's parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) without the consent of the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) absent a specific order of the Court, except as follows:

(1) When failure to remove the child may result in a substantial risk of death, permanent injury, or serious emotional harm, etc.

(2) When the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) is absent and it appears from the circumstances that the child is unable to provide for his own basic necessities of life, and that no satisfactory arrangements have been made by the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) to provide such necessities.

c. The DOJ attorneys shall not speak directly with the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) once said persons have secured legal counsel. Communications shall be conducted on an attorney to attorney basis.

18. Informal Agreement

a. CFS may enter into an informal agreement with the child of age 12 or older, the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s), and other parties when the worker has determined that the interests of the child do not require filing of a Child/Family Protection Petition and the facts of the case lead the social worker to believe the Court would have jurisdiction over the matter. This informal agreement shall be in writing and signed by the parties.

b. If at anytime during the period of the informal agreement that CFS determines the obligations imposed under the agreement are not being met, CFS may cancel the agreement and file a Child/Family Protection Petition with the Court.

c. The informal agreement will remain in effect for up to six months, from the date signed, unless the child, parent(s), guardian(s), or legal custodian(s) is discharged sooner by CFS or upon the mutual consent of the parties.

d. If, upon the expiration of the informal agreement, its express terms and conditions have not been fulfilled, CFS may then file a Child/Family Protection Petition.

19. Consent Decree

a. CFS may enter into a consent decree with the child of age twelve (12) or older, the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s), and other parties anytime between the filing of a Child/Family Protection Petition and the entering of a Dispositional Order.

b. A consent decree is an enforceable court Order.

c. If at anytime during the period of the consent decree CFS determines the obligations imposed under the agreement are not being met, CFS may motion the Court to revoke the consent decree and proceed with child protection proceedings as if the consent decree had never been entered into.

d. The consent decree will remain in effect for up to six months, from the date signed, unless the child, parent(s), guardian(s), or legal custodian(s) is discharged sooner. The Court may extend a consent decree once for six additional months upon motion of the Court, or by motion of CFS, the child if age twelve (12) or older, a parent, guardian,

e. The consent decree shall include language regarding the requirement to have a status hearing two (2) weeks prior to the expiration of a consent decree.

(m) A child whose parent(s), guardian(s), or legal custodian(s) is at substantial risk of neglecting, refusing, or being unable for reasons other than poverty to provide necessary care, food, clothing, medical or dental care, or shelter so as to seriously endanger the physical or mental health of the child, based on reliable and credible information that the child's parent(s), guardian(s), or legal custodian(s) has neglected, refused, or been unable for reasons other than poverty to provide necessary care, food, clothing, medical or dental care, or shelter so as to seriously endanger the physical or mental health of another child or children.

(2) The Court may order an examination of a parent(s) or guardian(s) whose ability to care for the child is at issue, if the Court finds from the evidence presented at the hearing that the parent's or guardian's physical, mental, or emotional condition may be a factor in causing the neglect, dependency, or delinquency of the child.

d. Petition Dismissal. The Court may dismiss a petition at any stage of the proceedings after notice and after the parties have had an opportunity to be heard.

e. Consolidation of Proceedings. When more than one child is involved in a home situation that may be found to constitute abuse, neglect or abandonment, the proceedings may be consolidated, although each child will have a separate case number.

f. Amendment of Pleadings. It is the duty of the moving party to file a motion requesting the Court to consider additional or different material facts raised by evidence not alleged or in the original petition. In such event, the Court may direct that the petition be amended to conform to the evidence.

g. Legal Representation. At the commencement of the pre-hearing under this Act, the Court shall advise a parent(s) or other interested party that they may have legal representation of their own choice and at their own expense.

a. Initial Summons – When Required. An initial summons is issued the first time a petition is filed or upon transfer of a case from a foreign court to the Court.

When the Court accepts the filed petition, the Court shall promptly issue a summons. The summons is to be personally served on the parent(s) of the child and any other interested party. A summons is required whether or not a person appears voluntarily or files a written waiver of service with the Clerk of Court at or prior to the hearing.

The summons shall require the person or persons who have legal custody of the child to appear personally and bring the child before the Court at the time and place stated. If the person or persons so summoned are not the parent(s) or guardian of the child, then the summons shall also be issued to the parent(s) or guardian(s) notifying them of the pendency of the proceedings and the time and place set for the hearing. No summons need be issued to a parent or parents whose parental rights have been relinquished.

(2) The summons issued by the Court shall conspicuously display the words:

NOTICE – VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS SUBJECT TO PROCEEDINGS FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT. SUBPOENAS: “THE FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH A SUBPOENA SHALL SUBJECT THE PERSON FAILING TO COMPLY TO THE CONTEMPT POWER OF THE COURT.” THE COURT MAY FIND ANY PARTY TO THIS MATTER IN CONTEMPT OF COURT FOR FAILURE TO APPEAR AT A COURT HEARING OR FOR FAILURE TO FOLLOW COURT ORDERS.

e. Payment of Travel Expenses. The Court may authorize the payment of necessary travel expenses incurred by persons summoned or otherwise required to appear at the hearing of a case under this Act. (2) Substituted Service – Jurisdiction. If the parent(s) or guardian required to be summoned by personal service under this Section cannot be found upon reasonable search, the fact of the child's enrollment or eligibility for enrollment shall confer jurisdiction to the Court as to any absent parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s).

(3) Time Requirement.

(a) In the case of service of an initial petition where all parties reside in the State of Wisconsin; in order to be sufficient to confer jurisdiction on the person served; service must occur no less than ten (10) calendar days before the time set in the summons for the appearance.

a. Search and Seizure Warrants. If it appears to the Court upon an affidavit sworn to by a police officer or any other person, and upon the examination of other witnesses if required by the Court, that there is probable cause to believe that a child is being detained or ill-treated in any place within the jurisdiction of the Court, the Court may issue a warrant authorizing a duly authorized police officer or CFS designee to search for the child. Upon serving such warrant, the officer or designee making the search may enter the house or premises, of necessary by force, in order to remove the child. This is not a limit to the types of evidence that may be considered by the Court.

28. Welfare of the Child. In placing a child in the physical care of an institution or of a private agency, the Court shall give primary consideration to the welfare of the child, but whenever practicable, may take into consideration the cultural preferences of the child and parent(s) and shall consider other factors allowable under this Act.

29. Placement Preferences.

a. Whenever possible and appropriate, a child shall be placed in an approved home with Hoocak Tribal members. Out-of-home placement shall be given preference in the following order:

(1) Paternal Traditional Relatives, provided these relatives are Hoocak Tribal members, with priority to paternal grandparents.

(2) Other maternal Traditional Relatives, with priority to the tega (maternal brother) and maternal grandparents, if the father is not a member of the Hooçak Nation, or is not known.

(3) Another approved Hooçak family.

(4) Another approved American Indian family that is a relative of one of the child's parent(s).

(5) A Hooçak owned, secure or non-secure Shelter Care Facility.

(6) A suitable American Indian family.

(7) Any other family which can provide a suitable home for Hooçak children.

b. Any placement ordered by the Court shall encourage a child to maintain cultural ties with the Nation, to be informed of the tradition and customs of the Nation, and to have the opportunity to learn the Hooçak language.

c. In making an out-of-home placement, the Court's determination in all cases shall be in the child's best interests. The Court shall consider family relations and the acceptance of the placement by the child(ren) and relative(s), all in accordance with the traditions, customs, and preferences of the Hooçak Nation. The Traditional Court may be consulted to recommend potential placement options of children who are in out-of-home care.

d. Potential Placement Homes. In order to enable the Court to place children in a manner consistent with the preceding paragraph, CFS shall make or cause to be made a continuing survey of the Nation's members or other Indians living on or off Trust Lands to determine the availability of homes suitable for child placement and the willingness of such persons to accept and care for placed children on either a temporary or permanent basis, or both.

e. Fitness of Home. CFS shall, if necessary, determine the fitness of a home into which a child is to be placed at or immediately prior to the time such placement is needed. CFS shall, whenever possible and as needed, schedule a meeting of the child(ren)'s family for the purpose of assisting the Court in determining proper placement of the child(ren) and to allow the family to discuss what it can offer the Court in terms of placement of the child(ren).

f. The Judge and CFS may contract on the behalf of the Nation with agencies or departments of the federal government for the care and placement of children whose status is adjudicated under this Act.

30. Scheduling.

a. An Emergency Removal hearing shall be held regarding the removal of a child before the end of the second Court working day following the filing of the Child/Family Protection Petition.

b. If a child has not been removed from the home a plea hearing will be held within ten (10) calendar days of the filing of the petition.

c. The Court will set a date for a trial on the issues no later than thirty (30) calendar days after the plea hearing.

d. A Dispositional Hearing is to be scheduled no later than sixty (60) calendar days after the filing of the Child/Family Protection Petition.

The Court may schedule the first review hearing following a Trial on the issues at any time within six (6) months.

31. Default Judgment

a. If the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) fails to appear at the Emergency Removal Hearing or any subsequent hearing, the Court may find the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) in default and enter a default Order of Child/Family Protection and order necessary intervention and appropriate steps which the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) must follow to correct the originating underlying problem.

b. Prior to finding a parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) in default, the Court must determine that actual notice has been given or that all reasonable steps have been taken to provide notice of the hearing to the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s).

CHAPTER VII EMERGENCY REMOVAL HEARING

32. Purpose. The purpose of the Emergency Removal Hearing is to determine whether it is reasonable to believe that continuing absence from the home is necessary to protect the well-being of the child.

33. Scheduling. If a child has been removed from the home an Emergency Removal Hearing shall be held before the end of the second Court working day following the filing of the petition.

34. Notice. The Court shall make all reasonable efforts to advise the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) of the time and place of the Emergency Removal Hearing. The Court shall order that the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) be present for the hearing. Reasonable efforts shall include personal, telephone, and written contacts at their residence, place of employment, or other locations where the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) are known to frequent with regularity. If the Court is unable to contact the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s), notice shall be given to the extended family of the child.

35. Rights of Parties. During these hearings, the Court shall advise the party(ies) of the following basic rights:

- a. The reason for the hearing.
- b. Right to counsel at their own expense. The Court shall permit one continuance to secure counsel, unless reasonable efforts are shown to the Court that the parties are actively seeking counsel. In granting continuances, the Court must consider the increased length of time the child will be in out-of-home placement due to such continuances.
- c. Right to confront and cross-examine those appearing against them.
- d. Right to present and subpoena witnesses.
- e. Right to substitution of judge. The parties shall be notified that a request for substitution of judge must be made before the end of the Emergency Removal Hearing (or Plea Hearing if the child has not been removed from the home prior to the filing of the petition) or this right will be deemed waived unless good cause is shown at a later point in the proceedings.
- f. Right to a jury trial.

c. The child may continue to be placed in an out-of-home placement and a Plea Hearing will be held within ten (10) calendar days of the filing of the petition.

38. Grounds for Re-Hearing. Any interested party may at any time petition the Court for a new hearing on the grounds that new evidence, which might affect the Order, has been discovered. If it appears to the Court that there is such new evidence which might affect its Order, it shall order a new hearing and enter such Order and make such disposition of the case as is warranted by all the new facts and circumstances and the best interests of the child.

39. Written Order. The Court shall specify in writing the facts, grounds, and laws upon which it relied to make its decision. Orders stemming from the Emergency Removal Hearing shall be entered within two (2) days of the proceeding.

CHAPTER VIII PLEA HEARING

40. Purpose. The purpose of the Plea Hearing is to determine whether any party wishes to contest an allegation that the minor child is in need of protection or services.

41. Scheduling. A Plea Hearing will be held within ten (10) calendar days of the filing of the petition, provided no continuances have been granted.

42. Notice. The Court shall make all reasonable efforts to advise the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) of the time and place of the Plea Hearing. custodian(s) on the record.

c. Pleas. The parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) may contest or admit to any or all of the allegations made against them.

d. Parties shall present evidence relating to the situation.

e. Testimony. The Court shall admit all testimony having reasonable probative value, but shall exclude immaterial, irrelevant or unduly repetitious testimony.

f. Hearsay. Hearsay evidence will be excluded at this hearing unless it is otherwise admissible based upon the Rules of Evidence.

45. Possible Outcomes of the Plea Hearing.

a. The petition may be dismissed and the child returned to the home.

b. The parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) may contest the allegations, and the child may be returned to the home of the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) under the supervision of the Court. A trial on the issues will be held within forty (40) calendar days from the filing of the petition, provided no continuances have been granted.

c. The parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) may contest the allegations, and the child may continue to be placed in an out-of-home placement. A Trial on the issues will be held within forty (40) calendar days from the filing of the petition, provided no continuances have been granted.

d. The parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) may claim no contest, and the child may be returned to the home of the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) under the supervision of the Court. A Dispositional Hearing will be held within sixty (60) calendar days from the filing of the petition, provided no continuances have been granted.

e. The parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) may claim no contest, and the child may continue to be placed in an out-of-home placement. A Dispositional Hearing will be held within sixty (60) calendar days from the filing of the petition, provided no continuances have been granted.

46. Written Order. The Court shall specify in writing the facts, grounds, and laws upon which it relied to make its decision. Orders stemming from a Plea Hearing shall be entered within two (2) days of the proceeding.

CHAPTER IX FORMAL TRIAL

47. Purpose. The purpose of the Trial is to determine whether the allegation(s) made in the petition are proven by a preponderance of the evidence.

48. Scheduling. A Trial will be held within forty (40) calendar days of the filing of the petition, provided no continuances have been granted.

49. Notice. The Court shall make all reasonable efforts to advise the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) of the time and place of the Trial. b. Concerned parties shall present evidence relating to the situation.

c. Testimony. The Court shall admit all testimony having reasonable probative value, but shall exclude immaterial, irrelevant or unduly repetitious testimony.

d. Hearsay. Hearsay evidence will be excluded at this hearing unless it is otherwise admissible based upon the Rules of Evidence.

e. Child Witnesses. In an effort to protect the best interests of the child and to create an environment where testimony may be provided freely without fear, the Judge shall permit a child to testify in closed chambers. The judge shall have the discretion to determine who may be permitted in the chambers.

f. Burden of Proof. The petitioner has the burden of proof. The petitioner must prove that the allegations raised in the child protection petition are more likely true than not, that is, by the preponderance of the evidence, and that the best interests of the child will be served by continued Court intervention.

g. Findings of Fact. When a child is found to come within the provisions of this Act, the Court shall so adjudicate, and make findings of fact upon which it bases its jurisdiction over the child, and shall enter its Order.

h. Decision. The Court will determine the validity of the allegations in the petition.

51. Possible Outcomes of the Trial.

a. Continuance. If the Court finds that sufficient evidence does not exist to support a finding, the Trial may be continued to a specific date to allow for the presentation of further evidence, if a request for such continuance is made by a party(ies).

b. Dismissal. The petition may be dismissed and the child returned to the home if the Court determines the petitioner has failed to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the allegations are true.

c. Return to Home with Supervision. The Court may find the allegations of the petition to be true, but that out-of-home placement is not needed to protect the child.

(1) The Court may, however, due to unresolved problems in the home, continue Court intervention and supervision as appropriate, known as an in-home child protection action.

(2) A Dispositional Hearing will be held within sixty (60) calendar days from the filing of the petition, provided no continuances have been granted.

d. Continued Out-of-Home Placement. The Court may find the allegations of the petition to be true and out-of-home placement to be necessary to protect the child.

(1) The Court shall order that the child may not be returned home, without specific order of the Court.

(2) Grounds. The grounds for continuing removal from the home of the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) are as follows:

(a) Without a parent or guardian.

(c) A victim of abuse including injury which is self-inflicted or inflicted by another by other than accidental means.

(h) A child who is home-schooled or participates in alternative education and fails to show acceptable academic progress as defined in the student's educational plan.

(n) Suffering emotional damage for which the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) is unwilling or unable for reasons other than poverty, to provide treatment, which is evidenced by one or more of the following characteristics, exhibited to a severe degree: anxiety, depression, withdrawal, or outward aggressive behavior.

(o) A child of a sufficient age and developmental level to make an informed decision signs the petition and states that he or she is in need of special care and treatment which the parent(s), guardian(s), or legal custodian(s) is unwilling or unable for reasons other than poverty to provide.

(3) A Dispositional Hearing will be held within sixty (60) calendar days from the filing of the petition, provided no continuances have been granted.

52. Written Order. The Court shall specify in writing the facts, grounds, and laws upon which it relied to make its decision. Orders stemming from a Trial shall be entered within thirty (30) days of the proceeding.

CHAPTER X DISPOSITIONAL HEARING

53. Purpose. The purpose of the Dispositional Hearing is to determine what conditions must be met by the parent(s), guardian(s), custodian(s), minor child, or any other person who has been made party to the proceedings, in order for the cause(s) of the child protection action to be rectified and for reunification of the family to take place.

54. Scheduling. A Dispositional Hearing will be held within sixty (60) calendar days of the filing of the petition, provided no continuances have been granted.

55. Notice. The Court shall make all reasonable efforts to advise the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) of the time and place of the Dispositional Hearing. The Court shall order that the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) be present for the hearing. Reasonable efforts shall include personal, telephone, and written contacts at their residence, place of employment, or other locations where the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) are known to frequent with regularity. If the Court is unable to contact the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s), notice shall be given to the extended family of the child.

56. Nature of Hearing.

a. The hearing shall be informal in nature. However, all parties will conduct themselves in a manner reflecting respectfulness to the Court and other parties.

b. CFS shall read the dispositional requirements into the record if requested by the Court and/or parties.

c. Parties shall have the right to object to any dispositional requirement, provided the parties make their case as to why or why not the dispositional requirement shall stand.

d. Testimony. The Court shall admit all testimony having reasonable probative value, but shall exclude immaterial, irrelevant or unduly repetitious testimony.

e. Hearsay. Hearsay evidence will be excluded at this hearing unless it is otherwise admissible based upon the Rules of Evidence.

57. Dispositional Requirements/Reunification Plan.

a. CFS shall submit to the Court a list of dispositional requirements that it believes are necessary to be completed in order for a safe and successful reunification to occur. The list shall be submitted to the Court no later than three (3) days before the Dispositional Hearing.

b. The Court shall specify in its Order the necessary intervention and the dispositional requirements that the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) shall fully complete in order for the cause(s) of the child protection action to be rectified and for reunification of the family to take place.

c. The Court shall specify what steps the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) shall take to demonstrate their abilities to care for their child, set the appropriate timeframe for these steps to be accomplished, and specify to the parties what factors the Court will consider at a subsequent hearing to determine whether or not reunification shall take place.

d. The dispositional requirements may include, but are not limited to restrictions on the visitations by the parents or one parent; restrictions on the child's associates; conditions on occupation, residence, and other activities; and requirements to be observed by the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s).

e. The Court shall approve a transitional plan created by CFS to fit the individual needs of the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s), as well as the individual needs of the minor child, that must be followed prior to any reunification.

f. Failure to follow the Court's Order may result in his/her contempt of court.

58. Written Order. The Court shall specify in writing the facts, grounds, and laws upon which it relied to make its decision. Orders stemming from a Dispositional Hearing shall be entered within thirty (30) days of the proceeding.

59. Review of Cases. An Order under this Chapter for the placement of a child with an individual or an agency shall include a specific date for review of the case by the Court, with a new date to be set upon each review.

CHAPTER XI CHILD PROTECTION REVIEW HEARING

60. Child Protection Review Hearing.

a. Requirement. The Court shall review the status of all children subject to this Act at least every six (6) months at a hearing to determine whether Court intervention shall continue. The Court may schedule the first review following a formal trial on the issues at any time within six (6) months.

b. Return to Home. A child may be returned home at the Child Protection Review Hearing, unless the Court finds that the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) have not completely complied with the case plan and are failing to rectify the cause(s) for the child protection action. If the Court returns the child to the parent's home, the Court may continue supervision as appropriate. Prior to returning the child to the home, the Court shall request CFS to submit a transitional plan.

(1) Transitional Plan. CFS shall establish a transitional plan to be implemented, pursuant to Court Order, any time a child is to be returned to the home. The purpose of said plan will be to provide for a smooth and safe transition from out-of-home placement to in-home placement. The plan should be tailored to the circumstances of each case.

(2) Reunification Hearing. Upon notice that the transitional plan has been successful, CFS shall file a motion requesting a Reunification Hearing, where a date for terminating services and closing the case will be determined.

c. Continued Court Supervision. If continued Court supervision is determined to be necessary, the Court shall set forth the following in a written Order:

(1) What services have been required of the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) to help rectify the cause(s) for the child protection action.

(2) The extent to which the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) has visited or contacted the child and any reason why such visitation and/or contact has been infrequent or has not otherwise occurred.

(3) Whether the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) is cooperative with the Court.

(4) Whether additional services are to be offered to the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s).

(5) Whether the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) will be required to participate in any additional programs to help correct the underlying problem(s).

(6) When the next Child Protection Review Hearing is scheduled.

61. Written Order. The Court shall specify in writing the facts, grounds, and laws upon which it relied to make its decision. Orders stemming from a Child Protection Review Hearing shall be entered within thirty (30) days of the proceeding.

CHAPTER XII PERMANENCY PLANNING

62. Purpose. The purpose of permanency planning is to develop a plan to help reunify the child with his/her parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) if possible, but if not, then to have a stand-by plan ready to be implemented quickly so as to ensure the child attains placement in a home providing long-term stability.

63. Permanency Plan.

a. A permanency plan shall be created and filed along with the dispositional recommendations.

b. Traditional Relatives, as identified by CFS and the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) of child(ren), may meet prior to the Child Protection Review Hearing(s) to discuss permanency plans for the child(ren).

c. The permanency plans shall include the primary permanence goal, which shall be reunification with the family.

d. The permanency plans shall also include a concurrent permanence goal, which shall be placement with a temporary/permanent guardian or placement in sustaining care. The concurrent goal shall be the result of a parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s) failing to fulfill the dispositional conditions required to rectify the cause(s) of the child protection action.

64. Notice of Permanence. During the first Child Protection Review Hearing, CFS shall file a notice of permanence. The notice shall explain permanence and take into consideration the age of the child, the length of out-of-home placement, and the history of parental contacts.

65. Permanency Plan Review. Every Child Protection Review Hearing shall include a review of the permanency plan.

66. Permanence. During the second Child Protection Review, CFS shall have the option of recommending permanence for any child, when reunification is not in the child's best interests.

67. Types of Permanence. The Ho-Chunk Nation does not recognize termination of parental rights (TPR) within its jurisdiction, as it is not culturally appropriate. Therefore, attaining permanence may include temporary/permanent guardianship or sustaining care.

CHAPTER XIII CHILD PROTECTOIN GUARDIANSHIPS

68. Purpose. The purpose of a child protection guardianship is to provide a child with long-term stability. When it appears that reunification is not possible, the Court may appoint a guardian for the person and/or property of a child under the Court's jurisdiction.

69. Appointment of Guardian Generally. The Court may appoint a guardian of the person or a guardian of the property, or both, for an individual if the Court determines that the individual is a minor child and such guardianship is in the best interests of the child.

70. Types of Guardianships. Types of guardianships shall include:

a. Temporary Guardianship of the Person. The Court may appoint a temporary guardian under such terms and conditions as the Court sets forth in the written Order. A temporary guardianship may be terminated if the Court determines that it is in the best interests of the child to change custody from the temporary guardian to a new guardian or to return the child to the parent(s), guardian(s), or custodian(s). The parent(s) and the child's Traditional Relatives and Clan Members shall be granted liberal visitation rights unless deemed inappropriate by the Court.

b. Permanent Guardianship of the Person. The Court may appoint a permanent guardian for the child under such terms and conditions as the Court sets forth in the written Order. Permanent guardianship provides for permanent custody of the child to someone other than the parent(s), although there is no termination of the parental rights of the parent(s). There shall be a presumption of continued permanent guardianship in order to provide stability for the child. Permanent guardianship can only be terminated based upon the unsuitability of the permanent guardian. The parent(s) and the child's Traditional Relatives and Clan Members shall be granted liberal visitation rights unless deemed inappropriate by the Court.

c. Guardianship of Property. The Court may appoint a guardian of the property of a child under such terms and conditions as the Court sets forth in the written Order. The guardianship may cover all property until the child reaches eighteen (18) years of age or emancipates. It may be limited to only specific property or a specific legal action as set forth in the written Order. A temporary or permanent guardianship of the person may also include guardianship of the child's property if set forth in the written Order.

71. Guardianship Preferences and Order. The Court shall consider the appointment of a guardian for a child from the following persons in the following order:

a. Paternal Traditional Relatives, provided these relatives are Hoocak Tribal members, with priority to paternal grandparents.

b. Other maternal Traditional Relatives, with priority to the Tega and maternal grandparents, if the father is not a member of the Hoocak Nation, or is not known.

c. Another Hoocak family.

d. Another American Indian family that is a relative of one of the child's parent(s).

e. A suitable American Indian family.

f. Another family which can provide a suitable home for Hoocak children.

72. Guardianship Duties and Powers.

a. Traditional Ways and Cultural Ties. Any appointment under this Act shall encourage a child to maintain cultural ties with the Nation, to be informed of the tradition and customs of the Nation, and to have the opportunity to learn the Hoocak language.

b. Guardianship Duties. A guardian appointed by the Court shall:

(1) Use the degree of care, diligence, and good faith when acting on behalf of the child that an ordinarily prudent person exercises in his/her own affairs;

(2) Advocate for the child's best interests;

(3) Demonstrate the utmost degree of trustworthiness, loyalty, and fidelity in relation to the child; and

(4) Notify the Court of any change in address of the guardian(s) or child.

(5) Make medical, dental, and psychiatric care decisions.

(6) Consent to marriage, if the child is still a minor.

(7) Make decisions related to education.

(8) Make decisions related to mobility and travel.

(9) Consent to military service.

(10) Consent/refuse visitation by relatives, subject to the limitation set forth in Section 82.

c. Guardianship Powers. A guardian appointed by the Court may be bestowed with the following powers:

(1) The power to manage the child's estate.

(2) The power to seek child support.

(3) The power to seek a name change, if tradition and custom permits.

73. Limitations Placed on the Guardian. When a guardian(s) has been appointed by the Court for a child, the Court may grant legal custody and care of the child and management of his property until such child arrives at the age of eighteen (18), marries, is emancipated by the Court under this Act, or until the guardian is legally discharged; provided, however, that said guardian shall not have the authority without express written consent of the Court to dispose of any real or personal property of the child in any manner. The disposal of a minor child's real or personal property in any way shall subject said person(s) to contempt of court and/or to criminal and civil penalties or remedies provided by Ho-Chunk Nation law.

74. Initiating an Action.

a. Petition for Guardianship.

(1) Who May File. A petition for guardianship may be filed by the proposed guardian, the child if at least sixteen (16) years of age, or CFS.

(2) Contents of Petition. The petition for guardianship shall include the following:

(a) The full name, address, and tribal affiliation of the petitioner.

(b) The full name, sex, date and place of birth, residence, and tribal affiliation of the child.

(c) The basis for the Court's jurisdiction.

(d) The relationship of the proposed guardian(s) to the child.

(e) The name and address of the agency having legal custody of the child.

(f) The type of guardianship requested.

(g) To the best information and belief of the petitioner, a full description and statement of value of all property owned, possessed, or in which the child has an interest (if guardianship of property is requested).

(h) The present conditions and circumstances that warrant the appointment of the guardian.

(i) A list of people willing and able to become an interim successor guardian in the sudden event that the guardian cannot carry out his/her duties.

(3) All petitions must be signed and dated by the petitioner, and must be notarized or witnessed by a Clerk of the Court.

b. Notice. Notice shall be provided in accordance with the notice procedures set forth in this Act, except that the Court may determine that it is unnecessary to give notice to specific individuals, including a parent(s) whose parental rights have been terminated by a foreign court.

75. Additional Guardianship Procedures

a. Appointment of a Guardian Ad Litem. The Court shall appoint a Guardian Ad Litem to protect the best interests of the child.

(1) The Guardian Ad Litem, in addition to the other duties laid out in the Ho-Chunk Nation Rules for Guardian Ad Litem, shall:

(a) Interview the proposed guardian and report to the Court concerning the suitability of each individual interviewed to serve as guardian.

(b) Meet with and observe the minor child in the proposed home setting and conduct an assessment of the home.

(c) Make written reports to the Court regarding the best interests of the child, including conclusions and recommendations and the facts upon which they are based. Written reports shall be filed with the Court at least three (3) days prior to a guardianship proceeding. Copies of all reports shall be provided to each of the parties.

(d) Attend all court proceedings related to the guardianship.

(e) Report to the Court on any matter that the Court requests.

b. Guardianship Report.

CHAPTER XVIII
WAA'EHİ HOÇI MAĀĀ HIĀĀĀĀ (FOREIGN COURTS)
& TRANSFER OF CASES

111. Full Faith and Credit.

(1) State Court Orders. State child custody Orders involving children over whom the Court could take jurisdiction may be recognized by the Court only after a full independent review of such State proceedings. The Court may grant or deny full faith and credit in whole or in part, based upon review of the following factors:

- (a) The foreign court had jurisdiction over the child.
- (b) The provisions of the Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. §§ 1901-1963, were properly followed.
- (c) Due process was provided to all interested persons participating in the foreign court proceedings.
- (d) The foreign court proceedings do not violate the public policies, customs, or common law of the Nation.

(2) Orders of Other Tribal Courts. Court Orders of other tribal courts involving children over whom the Court could take jurisdiction shall be recognized by the Court after the Court has determined the following:

- (a) That the other tribal court exercised proper subject matter and personal jurisdiction over the parties.
- (b) Due process was afforded to all interested parties participating in the other tribal court proceedings.
- (c) The foreign court proceedings do not violate the public policies, customs, or common law of the Nation.

(3) Tribal Interests. Because of the vital interest of the Nation in its children and those children who may become members of the Nation, the statutes, regulations, public policies, customs and common law of the Nation shall control in any proceeding involving a child who is a member of the Nation.

112. Transfer to Foreign Court. In any proceedings before the Court, the Court may transfer the proceedings to any appropriate foreign court or another tribal court where the State or other American Indian tribe has a significant interest in the child, and the transfer would be in the best interest of the child.

113. Transfer From Foreign Courts. The Court may accept or decline, under the procedures set forth in this Act, transfers of child welfare cases from foreign courts (state or tribal).

a. Procedures.

(1) Receipt of Indian Child Welfare Act Proceedings Notice. The designated tribal agent for service of notice of child custody proceedings, as defined by the Indian Child Welfare Act, shall be the Ho-Chunk Nation Child and Family Services. The aforementioned child custody proceedings do not include custody proceedings stemming from divorce or private custody disputes between parents, unless the foreign court orders that neither parent may have placement of the child(ren) and the parents cannot have the child(ren) returned upon demand.

(2) Request for Transfer. A parent, Indian custodian, or the Nation, may request the foreign court proceedings to transfer to the Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court, subject to declination of transfer by the Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court.

(a) CFS must be provided an opportunity to staff the transfer in order to ensure that the Division has the ability to provide adequate case management, services, and placement funding, so as not to be a detriment to the best interests of the child.

(3) CFS Transfer Staffing. Absent an objection from a parent, CFS shall immediately begin staffing the case to determine if the case is appropriate for transfer.

(a) CFS may determine that the child's best interests will not be served by transfer because necessary services cannot be met because the distance of the child from the Ho-Chunk Nation service territory prevents effective case management, such as mandatory case worker face-to-face home visits, managing visitation, and providing services where the child resides.

(b) Additional factors that CFS may consider are:

- i. The child is living in proximity to a parent, siblings, or other relatives to which the child is bonded, and transfer of jurisdiction would interfere with visitation or with services required for reunification;
- ii. The parent lives in the jurisdiction where the case is pending, and it would be a hardship for the parent to participate in services if the case was transferred to the Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court;
- iii. The child is placed in a permanent or long-term placement where transfer of jurisdiction would cause disruption in case management and/or placement that would be against the best interests of the child;

- iv. The child has special needs that are being served in the jurisdiction and transfer of jurisdiction would interfere with services being provided;
- v. Case management should be centralized for all siblings in the family; or
- vi. Any other factor related to transfer of jurisdiction which would affect the child's best interests.

(4) Notice of Proposed Transfer. DOJ will file a notice with the Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court that a motion/petition has been made in a foreign jurisdiction for transfer, within five (5) business days of the motion/petition being made.

(5) Child Welfare Transfer Assessment. CFS will produce a written assessment that provides a recommendation on transfer that addresses factors listed in subsection (3) above and any other considerations relevant to transfer. The assessment will be filed within seven (7) business days of the filing of the Notice of Proposed Transfer.

(6) Transfer Hearing.

- (a) The Court shall schedule and notice a hearing to determine whether to accept or decline jurisdiction of the proposed case no less than ten (10) business days or no more than twenty (20) business days from the date of the filing of the Notice of Proposed Transfer.
- (b) The Parent, Indian Custodian, and Nation shall have an opportunity to be heard on the matter of transfer.
- (c) The Nation shall present evidence on the factors addressed in subsection (3).

(7) Order on Transfer.

- (a) The Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court shall make findings based upon the factors in subsection (3) above.
- (b) The Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court shall issue an Order accepting or declining transfer of jurisdiction within seven (7) business days.
- (c) The Ho-Chunk Nation Trial Court shall ensure the Order is sent to the appropriate foreign jurisdiction.

(8) Post-Transfer Hearings. Upon receipt of transfer of jurisdiction from the foreign court, CFS shall file either a Child/Family Protection Petition and/or an updated report attached to the State's Petition with the Court and appropriate hearing(s) shall be held in accordance with this Act.

CHAPTER XIX REIMBURSEMENT FOR CARE

114. Child Placement Assistance. The Ho-Chunk Nation through CFS provides child placement assistance to any child who is under the legal custody of the Nation under this Act. These funds are used to provide for the needs of the child. The Nation is entitled to full reimbursement from the parent(s) as a debt owed to the Nation. CFS shall request reimbursement from the Court in the same or subsequent proceedings. If CFS believes reimbursement would hamper reunification, CFS can motion the Court to reduce or eliminate the payment.

115. Duty to Reimburse the Nation. The parent(s) of a child under the custody of the Ho-Chunk Nation have a duty to fully reimburse the Nation for any funds expended to care for the child.

116. Court's Role. Upon motion of CFS, the Court shall in the same or subsequent proceedings, inquire into the ability of the parents, or any other person who may be obligated, to reimburse the Nation for the costs associated with the care of the child. The Court shall after due notice and a hearing on the matter, require such person or persons to pay the whole or part of such reimbursement, depending on their financial resources and other demands on their funds. The amounts so required to be paid shall be paid at such intervals as the Court may direct.

117. Procedure for Payment. No Court Order issued under this Chapter against a parent(s) or other person shall be entered unless summons has been served or a voluntary appearance is made or a waiver of service given. The summons shall specify that a hearing with respect to the reimbursement to the Nation will be held. Payment shall be made to CFS who shall transmit the funds to the Ho-Chunk Nation Treasury for deposit. If the funds are to be taken from a tribal member parents' per capita the Court shall so order and transmit a copy of the Order to the Ho-Chunk Nation's Treasury Department. The Treasury Department shall subtract the amount from the parent's per capita and place the funds in a restricted account.

118. Enforcement of Reimbursement Orders.

a. An Order entered under this Chapter against a parent(s) or other person shall be enforced by contempt proceedings, and shall also have the effect of a civil judgment at law. In addition to other remedies, the Court shall issue an Order to any employer, trustee, financial agency, or other person or corporation indebted to any other person ordered to make payments under this Act, to withhold and pay over to the Clerk of the Court the amount ordered by the Court to be paid to the parent(s) or other person at each regular or usual payday or day of disbursement.

b. A copy of such Order shall be served on the parents or either of them adjudged liable and either the parents or parent or the indebted party may request a hearing to determine the propriety of the Order or the extent of the indebtedness.

c. No property of the parent(s), shall be exempt from execution to enforce collection of the amounts to be paid.

- 11/05/04 Restated to make technical corrections.
- 10/07/14 Legislature adopts Resolution 10/07/14O amending Section 7.a.(3) and Section 105 via quick passage procedure.
- 10/31/23 Legislature places draft Hocak Nation Children and Family Act out for 45-Day Public Review.
- 02/06/24 Legislature adopts Resolution 02-06-24M amending the Hocak Nation Children and Family Act (4 HCC § 3) to address ICWA transfer procedures to ensure the best interests of Ho-Chunk children and families can be met with the appropriate level of services. The addition of procedures provide an opportunity for the Judiciary to seek input from CFS as to CFS' capacity to handle cases – on a case-by-case assessed basis. To not do so would adversely affect the health, safety, and welfare of the most vulnerable individuals of the Nation – children in need of protection and services. The procedures are further necessary to prevent an adverse effect on the economic well-being of the Nation with CFS being required to fund cases to which it does not have appropriate funds or access to services for.
